ABOUT US > Our team

Our team

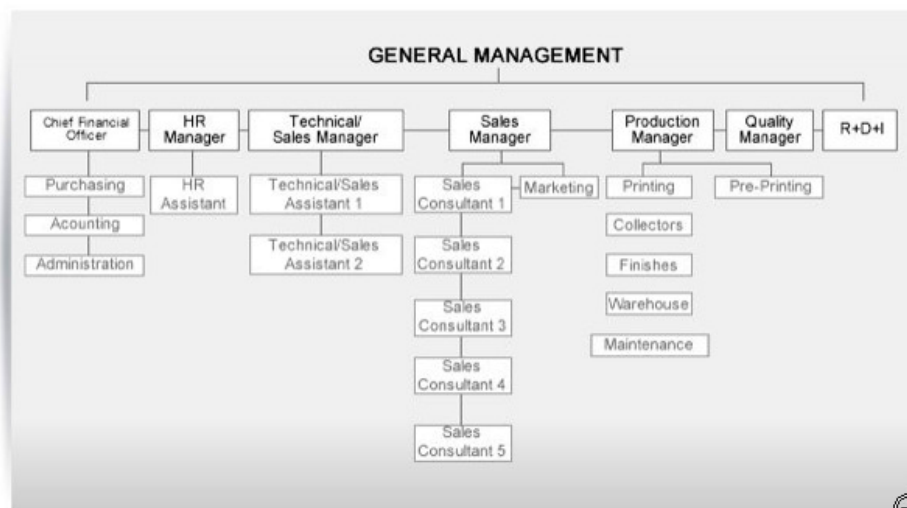

The perfect combination of talent and experience

Impaorsa's human resources are considered one of the cornerstones of our business success, and their development coupled with the strategy of responsibility applied by the company, focused on the integrity and welfare of our employees is one of the keys to the company's pleasant environment and smooth operation. We know that this is essential in order to do things right.

Our staff has grown considerably in recent years and has become an organisation of some 52 highly qualified people. This is a group of professionals who never cease learning. Professionals who know their mission.
